

Temat I I will get it – wyrażanie przyszłości 1

Jeżeli chcemy wyrazić:

- obietnice
- nagłe decyzje
- propozycje
- czynności lub zdarzenia co do których jesteśmy pewni, że będą miały miejsce w przyszłości
- uprzejme prośby
- zdania warunkowe I typu

Używamy wtedy czasu Future Simple , czyli

Podmiot+ will+ czasownik w I kolumnie

I will go with you.= I'll go with you.( forma ściągnięta)

W przeczeniach może wystąpić ściągnięta forma will+not =won't

I won't do that again.

Pytania tworzymy przez wysunięcie "will" przed podmiot

Will you help me with housework, please?

Mówiąc o przyszłości często korzystamy z typowych określeń odnoszących się do niej tomorrow, the day after tomorrow, next day/week /Monday , in 5 minutes, soon, think/probably

I think Diana will pass the exam.

Diana will probably pass the exam.

Ćwiczenia:

Temat II - It's going to rain – konstrukcja be going to ... dla wyrażania przyszłości konstrukcja „to be going to” jest używana do mówienia o :

- o zamiarach na przyszłość
- o czynnościach lub sytuacjach, które się wydarzą, gdyż wskazują na to obecne okoliczności lub nasza wiedza na ten temat.

Czasownik „be” odmieniamy zależnie od osoby i czasu gramatycznego ( bo „on miał zamiar” też możemy powiedzieć)

I am going to buy a new car.

She is not going to go out tonight.

Are you going to invite Jan to your party?

Temat III Praca tekstem - wyszukiwanie informacji

Proszę przeczytać 3 relacje z pobytu w Afryce i na podstawie zawartych w nich informacji odpowiedzieć na pytania wpisując odpowiednie litery.

Warto podkreślić słowa-kucze w pytaniach, a następnie przeczytać wypowiedzi, próbując znaleźć w nich synonimy lub parafrazy podkreślonych wyrazów. Zazwyczaj są one wyrażone w inny sposób.

A Mike 26, chef from Newcastle

“A friend of mine came across a web page about holidays in Kenya and when I saw it, I knew that it was a holiday for me. I stayed at Taita Hills Lodge on the beautiful coast of Kenya for seven gorgeous days. The accommodation was comfortable, the food excellent and the staff were friendly and helpful. I saw a lot of wild animals there. There were some stairs leading down to an underground hide near a waterhole where I was lucky enough to see elephants from fairly close up at night. I should also mention that the safari guides were extremely helpful and thanks to them I could watch lions roaming freely and take a few photographs of the most breathtaking scenery.”

B Peter 24, university student from York

“I’ve just come back from my first holiday in Africa. I stayed at Governors Camp in Kenya. I stayed on a campsite because I wanted to be as close to nature as possible. Each morning I was woken up with hot chocolate, my breakfast was ready and showers were hot, all before 6 am! The staff were perfect. I loved being escorted from my tent to the eating area where you could find animals on the way, although nothing beat the baby hippo waiting on my porch each morning. Needless to say, I’m going back again, as soon as I’ve saved enough money to stay for a month.”

C Roger 30, journalist from Essex

“Some friends and I were looking for a holiday with a difference and finally we decided to visit Kenya. We stayed in Mombassa at the Ocean Beach Club, where the rooms, service and food were excellent. For the first few days, I did some sightseeing, spent a lot of time on the beach and even learned to scuba dive. I went on a camel ride on the beach too, which was something I’ll never forget. We spent the last two days on safari, which was truly amazing. We stayed at the Mountain Lodge, which was very enjoyable. I still dream about those lovely views and campfire dinners under the open skies! On a trip such as this, it’s a must to take a camera, of course. I used up forty rolls of film in the first five days and I have my photographs to bring back the memories of my stay in Africa.”
